The Regular Session of the Court Convened Yesterday.

J. B. RIVES WAS APPOINTED CONSTABLE.

He Was Elected to the Position, Bu Did Not Make Bond-Inventories of Property.

The regular meeting of the county com missioners was called to order at 11 o'clock yesterday, with Judge Vasmer pre siding and Commissioners Jules Hirsch, J. Magee, C. Rath and J. H. G. Becker present. No business was transacted during the foreneon, the court adjourning to 2 p. m., at which time the matters for the disposal of which the meeting was called were taken up.

J. B. Rives was appointed constable of precinct No. 6. Mr. Rives was elected to this position at the recent general election, but was unable to reach the city in time to make his bond and the action meutioned above was therefore taken. Immediately after his appointment yesterday Mr. Rives filed his bond and his report, both of which were approved.

The pell tax of David Jones bring in error was ordered stricken from the rolls and the comptroller was so notified. Sim-Har action was taken in the case of A. Mahaffey, his assessment for 1898 being

DALLAS OPERA HOUSE.

The Andrews Opera company opened the operatic festival last night, presenting that most tuneful opera. "Martha." Few operas of its kind have achieved so great a degree of popularity as "Martha" or have been heralded by more glittering praise for sweet strains. The melodic invention of its musical investiture is delightfully tuneful. This is especially true of "The Last Rose of Summer." which is obviously entitled to the distinction of being the mest melodicus number of the secre.
